Dear Sirs:

I received the circulation dated May 11, 2021, about which I would like to make some comments. I start with a thought to be interpreted by yourselves and your work team, for The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico. THOUGHT: I go to a restaurant with my family and a few others I invite out to eat. We eat and then at the end I ask for the bill in order to pay. I tell the person I am to pay that Martin J. Bienenstock and Brian S. Rosen are the one who have to pay the bill. WOULD YOU PAY IT?

According to PROMESA, in case title III, case No. IT BR 3283-LTS, we the taxpayers have to pay the consequences of the debts that the politicians in office took out for their own personal political benefit without the support of the taxpayers.

I personally am not in agreement with the negative things the politicians in office have done, and there are NEVER consequences for them. They continue to commit political barbarities and the taxpayer should not, can not be the one who pays for it. WE HAVE TO PRAY!
